

The courier's give and want name the same thing at two places and times: delivery is an offer that moves a thing through space and time. Four legs; each maker's legs cancel on its own scale; settlement commits all four or none. A two- or three-leg cycle is only the smallest case.